Nutrient Dense High Protein, High Calorie Supplement For Canines Of All Ages

Contains a source of live (viable) naturally occurring microorganisms

Comprehensive Nutrition To Support Peak Condition In All Dogs

Today's active dogs need a high level of nutrition to keep them in peak condition, perform their best and to live active, healthy, happy lives. Providing added nutritional support for missing, deficient or “cooked out” ingredients can help raise healthy puppies, ensure proper development, fuel high activity and help during times of environmental stress.

Veterinarian formulated Fortitude® Canine CSP offers a tasty, cost-effective solution for owners who are looking for a nutrient dense supplement that provides support for active dogs, breeding females, puppies and seniors too. Fortitude Canine CSP is formulated with an extensive balanced vitamin package, antioxidants, proteinated trace minerals, digestive enzymes and probiotics in a palatable protein packed, high fat top dress powder.

- High protein and high fat delivers the energy today's dogs need during times of high activity, breeding/lactation and environmental stress
- Multiple B vitamins for overall wellness, including during environmental stress
- Probiotics and enzymes help support proper digestion and GI health
- Proteinated minerals provide high absorption for supporting red blood cells, bone structure and normal, healthy nerve function
- Vitamins A, D, E, C and selenium provide antioxidants and support the immune system
- Highly palatable formula easy to top dress on dog food or mix with homemade or raw diets
- Ideal uses for Breeding, Gestation & Lactation, Working, Herding & Hunting Dogs, Endurance Dogs, Performance & Show Dogs, Puppies and Seniors
